German Government Admits Inability to Support Them

BERLIN, Nov. 13.—(A. P.)—After permitting to go unchallenged throughout the day reports to the effect that the German government was about to proclaim an autonomous Rhineland and Ruhr state within the German federation, an official communication, issued tonight, threw a strange light upon a secret conference which was in progress at the chancellery all day. At the conference President Ebert and Chancellor Stresemann and others of the cabinet discussed at great length with the premiers of the federated states and a committee comprising Ruhr and Rhineland leaders, the question of liquidating the economic chaos of the occupied areas.

PINCHOT CALLS FOR ANTHRACITE COAL CONFERENCE

To Plan Legislation to Reduce Prices to Consumer

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 13.—Governor Pinchot tonight sent letters to the governors of 29 anthracite consuming states inviting them to a conference here November 26 to consider a program of federal legislation designed to reduce coal prices. Declaring "justice to the great body of anthracite consumers must be reached mainly by national action," the governor said such action could be secured "most certainly and effectively" after the governors of the anthracite consuming states unite in a "single specific program," he said he was prepared to submit a suggestion for such a program and invited the governors here to consider it and, if it is found practicable, to agree upon a definite plan of execution to be laid before congress at the coming session.

Question of Price

"Since the coal strike was settled in September, I have taken up the question of price in a series of conferences with the members of a committee of the operators," the governor wrote. "On Friday last, this committee finally declined to recommend to the coal city that it should clean its own house of extortion, as I have been urging it to do. "We do not have to prove the existence of abuses in the anthracite industry or of crying injustice to the consumer in extortionate prices. It would have been merely the most elementary common sense for the committee of operators to take these evils in hand. They have declined to do so. Then we must turn elsewhere.

Who Use Coal

"About 90 per cent of the anthracite mined in Pennsylvania is burned in other states. Therefore justice to the great body of anthracite consumers must be reached mainly by national action. Such action can be secured most certainly and effectively if the governors of the anthracite using states will unite in support of a single specific program.

Those Invited

The letter, it was announced at the governor's office, was sent to the chief executives of Connecticut, Rhode Island, Vermont, New York, Maine, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Wisconsin, Alabama, Massachusetts and West Virginia.

Publicity Given Oklahoma Chief's Personal Wealth

Collection and Disbursement of Funds is Explained

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 13.—(A. P.)—The impeachment trial of Governor J. C. Walton moved forward today through a maze of figures with indications that a definite move hearing was in prospect. Virtually the entire day was devoted to review of campaign fund solicitation by Dr. S. T. Bynum, former advisor to the governor and investigation of the executive's bank account and building and loan stock investments.

Collection Deviation

The witness explained that collections were continued after the election for the benefit of Governor Walton's "organization," he testified, was the name given by the governor to a group of his supporters. "It was a term he used," the witness said, "he would bring men in and ask that they be paid for services rendered either in the campaign or afterwards."

Oil Men's Gifts

Dr. Bynum testified that wealthy oil men from whom he obtained contributions for the Walton Administration also had made him presents of money on certain occasions. He told of dividing $1,000 with Aldrich Blake, who succeeded him as legislative councillor, when Bynum was appointed bank-commissioner.

GERMANY ASKED FOR DELAY ON DEBT MATTERS

Poincare Had Asked for Appointment of Committee

PARIS, Nov. 13.—(A. P.)—Action on Premier Poincare's suggestion that the reparation commission appoint an expert committee to conduct an inquiry into the reparation question was deferred by the commission today until German delegates shall have been heard regarding the reich's capacity to pay.

The suggestion made thru Louis Barthou, was that the expert committee be charged with estimation of the "present" capacity of Germany. Sir John Bradbury, the British representative is understood to have declared that this would provide for an even closer restriction of the inquiry than that proposed by the French in the case of the Hughes plan.

The French idea was that after estimating the present resources of Germany at home and abroad, the committee should fix the amounts that Germany could pay during the ensuing three years. Mr. Barthou well especially on the necessity of ascertaining the total German assets in foreign countries.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(A. P.)—John Thomas Taylor, vice chairman of the national executive committee of the American Legion, in a letter made public tonight to Acting Chairman Green, of the house ways and means committee, characterizes the recent letter of Secretary Mellon to Mr. Green on proposed legislation for tax as "a personal and direct attack upon the soldiers' adjusted compensation measure."

PARIS, Nov. 13.—(A. P.)—Premier Poincaré, riding rough shod over all opposition scored a signal victory at the re-opening of the French chamber today. He succeeded in placing the discussion of the supplementary credits of the 1924 budget at the top of the order of the day and absolutely refused to discuss interpellations, except on one day each week, which means in effect indefinite postponement, as intervention filed by Attorney General Brundage and others and ordered attorneys to proceed with a hearing regarding permission to run a railroad through the Illinois Central railroad from Edgewood, Illinois, to Metropolis, Illinois, and then to the Ohio river.

I. C. R. R. OBJECTS TO PARALLEL ROAD

In dismissing the petition the commission held that the railroad and the highway officials of the counties affected were the only proper officials concerned, and that the state municipality and private individual had no right to order of the interstate commerce commission for re-arguments does not change the status of the case before the state commission. After testimony was finished the commission took the case under advisement.

Former Tranquil Spirit Seems to be all Lost

LONDON, Nov. 13. (A. P.)—In a brief but exciting re-opening session for a parliament elected only a year ago on the slogan of "tranquillity" that parliament today found itself condemned to immediate death—not because the government had suffered defeat in the house, or reverses in by-elections—but because Mr. Baldwin, who succeeded to the premiership on the illness of the late Bonar Law seeks a new mandate from the country authorizing his government to resort to protective duties on manufactures as a remedy for unemployment, which is the most difficult domestic problem facing the government today.

Secretary Mellon, the newspaper dispatches said, prepared his recommendations with great care with a view to "popularizing proposals to reduce income taxes for the average tax payer." The popularity of this suggestion need not worry the secretary of the treasury at all. Any proposal which will reduce income taxes in a comfortable way will be received with great eclat.

At a coming meeting members of the Decatur Rotary club will dine on bread and milk; just the fare that is given to the refugee children under the care of the Near East relief committee. The difference in the cost of this bill of fare and the regular luncheon will be contributed to the Near East cause.

This is quite an impressive way of bringing to mind this splendid work of saving refugee children from starvation.

Attorney General Brundage has purchased a summer home site on Rock river. It is off the hard road and altogether a secluded spot. Evidently the attorney general thinks that inaccessibility is the greatest charm for a summer residence. No doubt this point of view is quite understandable to those long active in politics.

WHY IS

While the controversy over the offer of Henry Ford for the Muscle Shoals project goes on, Secretary of War Weeks continues his efforts to make the property one of the most efficient sources of power in the United States. He has recently recommended to the Budget Bureau that an appropriation of $2,000,000 be authorized for doubling the power installation at the Wilson dam. As originally planned, there were to be four power units constructed, but Secretary Weeks wants to increase them to eight. Of course, doubling the power capacity means no addition to the dam itself, which represents by far the greatest outlay of money at Muscle Shoals. By a comparatively insignificant expenditure the return from the investment in the dam will be doubled.

The remarkable speed records made recently by navy airmen at the trials in New York emphasize anew the resourcefulness and daring of our air service. While the men in charge of the development of an air defense are getting the very best results attainable from the means at hand, the fast remains that the United States has no settled air policy. The National Defense Act fixed the proportions of the different services in an army which operates on the ground, and the naval limitations treaty defined the strength and principal characteristics of our ships that sail the sea.

But the size and proportions of air fleets have never been determined, and our efforts have been largely of an experimental character, with little attempt to build and maintain an air force commensurate with those of foreign governments or with our own actual needs. It is likely that Congress will give attention to the subject when it reconvenes. Our air personnel and equipment, so far as they go, are unexcelled. What is needed is an appreciation of their value and sufficient funds to permit their expansion according to a well conceived plan.

GRASS GREEN?

The General Motors Research Corporation is now trying to find the answer to the question "Why is grass green?"

"It sounds like a foolish problem for a group of automobile research engineers to be tackling," says the president, "but it is the one about which we are most concerned. If we can discover why grass is green, we will find out what makes the grass grow. You know grass is trapped sunshine."

"People talk about farming so many acres of ground. They don't at all. They farm so many acres of sunshine. Practically everything we use, except our fuel, is raised. It is important, when our present fuel supplies are exhausted, that we know how to trap sunshine and lay it up for the periods when we want it, when there is no sunshine, just as we lay away food for the winter when it will not grow. That is why we are concerned over why grass is green."

It is surely an important quest. Already the problem seems to have been partly solved by the discovery that plants can be raised by artificial light and heat, though not so well as by direct sunshine. Some day there may be found a complete substitute for the great life-giver of our world, to use in cold climates or in another great ice age, or when the human race is millions of years older and the sun itself is dimmed by age.

While the scientists are trying to find out why grass is green, why not inquire also why green is the one color of which our eyes never tire? Also why the simple, natural colors of grass, water, sky and sun are universally loved? Why is it that we consider them beautiful?

A PROHIBITION NAVY

If, as some authorities hold, the United States government has no right to use the navy to suppress liquor smuggling, there is no question that it can create other instruments for the purpose, and that it should do so.

That the administration itself takes this view is shown by the fact that it is preparing to ask congress for $20,000,000 to provide a powerful fleet of new revenue cutters and motorboats for chasing "rum runners." It wants more than 200 such boats, in addition to those already in service, to be operated under the coast guard.

This looks like business, in a field of federal activity which hitherto has not seemed altogether businesslike.

The booze fleet operating along the Atlantic coast and anchoring regularly off New York harbor has been a national scandal. The new arrangement with Great Britain, whereby the searching of British ships will be permitted as far out as 12 miles, should do

Each day and each hour

A fair spirit showing—
To lose without cringing,
To win without crowing.

I ASK for fair chances
A field with no favor,
Where he who advances

Where there's no repining
At how things are going,
Where losers aren't whining
And winners aren't crowing.

THE sport is the fellow

The rum-running between ships and shore by fleets of small, swift American powerboats has been still more scandalous. An adequate fleet of small police craft, properly armed, should wipe out those traffickers.

It is absurd to suppose that a nation which in its infancy went over and cleaned up the pirates in the Mediterranean cannot clean up this mess on our own shores.

HALIFAX HEARS ABOUT JACKSONVILLE WAY

Mayor E. E. Crabtree Well Received in Distant City—Story of Co-operation Told and Afterward Halifax Citizens Organized Association

Last Thursday night in the auditorium at Halifax, Canada, Mayor E. E. Crabtree of this city delivered an address on "The Business Man's Duty to His City." Mayor Crabtree was a guest of the distant city because the people of Halifax had read in magazines and newspapers about what Jacksonville has been doing thru the co-operative effort of its citizens.

Halifax is a city of 50,000 people. As Canadian laws vary quite widely from those in the United States many of the affairs relating to city government differ from those of cities on this side of the border. It seems however, that public affairs of Halifax have gotten into an unhappy tangle, largely due to the fact that a majority of the leading citizens have given very little attention to city government.

Conditions developed a number of months ago which resulted in the securing of Price, Waterhouse & Co., to audit the city books, with the result that two city officials were convicted of embezzlement, and shortages totaling more than $130,000 were shown. In addition, the audit revealed a million and a quarter of unpaid taxes and other financial facts which have aroused the citizenship to a sense of the need of some special program.

It was as a part of this movement to bring about better days that the Halifax committee communicated with Mayor Crabtree and secured his promise to make the visit to their city and tell them about the Jacksonville way.

The Halifax Herald and Chronicle gave a great amount of space announcing the coming of the Jacksonville man and the day following the auditorium meeting the Herald devoted more than four columns to Mr. Crabtree's address and the resulting action, the organization of the Halifax Rate Payers association. This organization, which begins its life with many of the prominent business men of Halifax in its membership, is the counterpart of a "citizens' organization or a tax payers association in the United States.

In referring to Mr. Crabtree's address the Herald said: "Mayor Crabtree with an unusually simple, direct, democratic manner of speech, opened his address by announcing that he was not an expert and not a reformer, but an average business man who had come 2,000 miles to tell the simple story of what had been accomplished in Jacksonville thru the co-operation of its citizens."

The Rate Payers association, according to printed resolutions, purposes thru joint effort to aid in the solution of civic problems and to conduct an educational campaign for the purpose of creating an active interest in civic affairs and to take under advisement definite forms of civic government in order to determine that which is most suitable and effective for Halifax.

While Mr. Crabtree was in Halifax he was a guest of the Rotary club of the business men's organization and was extended various courtesies by private citizens. At the conclusion of the auditorium address Rev. Mr. Cunningham, who is rector of an Episcopal church in Halifax, recalled the days when he served as rector of Trinity church in this city. He made inquiry about H. M. Andre and has personal acquaintance with Rev. Mr. Langton. Some other people made reference to acquaintances in Jacksonville or this part of Illinois, the instances all going to prove again the statement so often made that the world is not very large, after all.

The Ladies Aid of Centenary church will hold an all day meeting today at the church. A social and business meeting will be held in the afternoon. This is Passavant hospital donation day; those wishing to donate fruits and jellies may bring them to the church and they will be delivered to the hospital.

The latter station being established Aug. 1, 1908, and for seven years was under the immediate supervision of the late Dr. R. A. Fritchett, short terms of service being performed by R. V. Smith, F. W. Dillman and W. J. Roberts. The White Hall station, therefore, was 15 years old last August 1st.

White Hall has an added distinction in connection with the weather bureau service, being one of seven forecast distributing points in the state, a service that began about three years previous to the establishment of the co-operative station, and has met with little interruption since. Here is an idea of the excellent mail facilities in and out of White Hall, for the mailing list of the daily forecast card carries 57 post-offices reached within a few hours after the forecast is received and printed at the local postoffice, about 10 a. m., and besides are carried to numerous firms and individuals that adds to the importance of this mailing. It is a service performed in connection with the local postoffice that re-million received commendation in the very highest government circles.

The making and recording of meteorological observations day in and day out is a process that goes on at some 35,000 places scattered over the globe, recently remarked the Scientific American. The total number of such observations taken every year amounts to at least 15,000,000. Making due allowance for the fact that the majority of weather stations are of comparatively recent origin, while a few are from one to two centuries old, it appears that the existing date of climate are the final product of several hundred million observations of the weather.

What are climatic statistics good for? To this query one is tempted to retort, what are they not good for? Let us set down a few typical cases in which such data are desired.

A merchant plans to undertake the sale of rubber coats in foreign markets. Hence he wishes to know all about the distribution of rainfall, both geographically and as to season.

An invalid contemplates visiting a certain health resort. What mean temperatures occur at the season of the proposed visit?

What ranges of temperature between the day and night? How much does the temperature vary from day to day? How much sunshine may be expected? Is the atmosphere moist or dry? What of the winds? Such are some of the questions he is likely to ask.

A horticulturist proposes to introduce a foreign plant in this country. Where will he find the most favorable climate for it? These and matters more local in character continue to haunt the records of weather stations. Co-operative observers are often requested to furnish weather data for use in court, and for use to irrigation companies, fruit growers, shippers, public officials and others. This is evidence that the facts of weather record about the weather are taking the place of memory and misinformation, in defense of the reputation and interests of the community. The importance of the gratuitous service rendered to the community by the observers is thus becoming more generally recognized and appreciated.

OBITUARY.

Katherine Orr Harris, wife of Conductor David Harris, passed away at her home on East Palm street, Roodhouse, recently, at the age of 45 years, 3 months and 28 days.

Her illness dated back some time and while death was considered inevitable, she bore her affliction with that true spirit of Christian fortitude and self sacrifice which characterized her entire life.

Katherine Orr Harris, youngest child of Rev. Anderson and Katherine McCaskill Orr, was born in Roodhouse, Ill., July 7, 1878, and her entire life has been spent here. She was married to David L. Harris July 21, 1920. The husband survives with also one sister Mrs. Lou Mellon of Jacksonville, Ill., and one brother James M. Orr of this city. Her parents, a sister, Mrs. Laura B. Shew of Roodhouse and a half sister Mrs. Jennie Reid of Toronto, Kansas, have preceded her in death.

Mrs. Harris' family was one of the oldest in Roodhouse. Her father was a pioneer Methodist minister and widely known about here in an early day. Reared in this atmosphere she was a devoted member of the Methodist church, and her life was consecrated to her family, her church and insofar as her influence reached, to the community.

She was also a member of Roodhouse Chapter Eastern Star and Roodhouse Temple Pythian Sisters.

Funeral services were conducted by the pastor Rev. A. E. Cole, at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, before a very large congregation. Members of the Eastern Star attended in a body.

Music was furnished by a quartet comprising Mesdames S. L. Smith and P. G. Campbell, and Messrs C. S. Savage and J. E. Symonds, with Mrs. Walter Johnesee at the organ.

Many beautiful floral offerings were cared for by Mesdames Nina Adams, O. L. Edwards, Roy Duty, Misses Grace Short, Madama Amos and Nellie Sawyer.

The pall bearers were T. F. Shuman, H. A. Ruyle, E. W. Turner, Joe Hayes, J. R. McConathy and W. A. Jolley.

Interment was in Fernwood Mausoleum—Roodhouse Record.

WESTMINSTER NOTES

Tonight the Congregational luncheon will be held at 6:45 o'clock. It will be free to all, the ladies furnishing sandwiches and coffee and cocoa. The Study class will begin at 7:15 and last until 8 o'clock. "What Do the Prophets Teach on Stewardship?"

The Boy Scouts at 7:15 o'clock Thursday evenings have so increased in numbers that Prof. George W. Schneider needs assistance in teaching the troop.

Next Sunday night "The Passion of Our Lord" will be vividly shown in a high class film. This will be followed with a sermon by Rev. James R. Smith, the evangelist who has reached so many men in St. Louis and other cities. Mr. Smith was formerly a Jacksonville boy. His conversion was very remarkable. William Jennings Bryan said: "The last man I ever expected to see come out of an engine cab to go into the ministry was James R. Smith." This ex-Jacksonviller will speak in a number of places during his brief stay in the city. He says he was converted within a block of Westminster church.

GREENE COUNTY CROP REPORT FOR WEEK

Total of 597 Carloads of Apples Shipped from County During Week Just Closed

White Hall, Nov. 13.—Last week's figure of 588 carloads of apples as the output for northern Greene county is by later returns increased to 597 carloads, as shown in the weekly crop report for this station. There has not been a drop of rainfall during the week ending Monday, and the weather has been favorable for farm work, but the season has advanced too far for further sowing of winter wheat, which line of work has been brought to a close with considerable acreage intended for wheat left unsown. The delay was occasioned by wet ground. That which is up is in excellent condition.

Corn husking drags along with reports varying as to the yield, but there is no question that the amount of corn blown down during the season presents a serious obstacle to this work as reports are received from a wider scope. Hog cholera is abating.

The week has been clear throughout. The highest temperature reading was 72 on the 10th and 11th, and the lowest 21 on the 9th, the mean being 47.4. Roads are in excellent condition in every direction. No finer sample of dirt roads can be found than to the north of us in Scott county. There are no walnuts or hickory nuts.

There is no change in the water supply situation, except that the municipal supply is being replenished by turning on the reservoir, supply of Roodhouse under an arrangement that has brought new and better relations between the two communities. The water rates of White Hall are undergoing an upward revision to meet the expense of proposed changes and enlargements, and they will likely be put into effect January 1st.

WHERE FEAR HIDES FACTS

Hundreds of former service men who contracted tuberculosis during the war are refusing to acknowledge that dread disease for fear they will be taken from their families. They do not realize that the government stands ready to help them or that the Red Cross is near at hand to give aid and comfort.

Consider, for instance, the case of Larry, typical of them all for silent courage.

Larry was in the cavalry. He was thrown from his horse in 1917 and the accident was followed by a severe hemorrhage. Soon afterward, he was discharged from the army because of tuberculosis. When his discharge paper came, Larry took a pen and blotted out the hateful word "tuberculosis," for he felt that he could never get work if it were known that he was tubercular.

He took up his old trade of blacksmith's helper, clenching his teeth against the tasks that were too hard for his failing strength. But it was no good. Even grit of the first water, to use a mixed metaphor, could not stand up against the unequal struggle.

For sometime he had been reading in the newspapers about the help given by the Red Cross to former service men in straits like his, and so one day he came into the city and went to the Red Cross offices. He told them he was sick, but wouldn't admit tuberculosis. Neither did he tell of the need for the wife and children.

The young wife, however, knowing her husband's pride, made her own visit to the Red Cross. She told of his struggle against big odds, of his unflinching courage, and of his dread of a continuing sickness.

The upshot of it all was that the Red Cross secured admission into a Chicago government hospital for Larry, that he might have the necessary observation that would enable him to put in a claim for compensation. It arranged for his wife and children a sufficient allowance to make them comfortable, and later on, if Larry continues to need hospital care, will arrange to have him brought up to some institution near his home, where he can be near his family.

had discussed such contracts with Mortimer and said that late in 1922 he had refused to deal with the Sutherland construction company, of St. Louis, until assured by officers of the company that Mortimer did not represent them in the transaction. Appearing as his own request, Forbes was on the stand for four and one-half hours today and it seemed that his examination direct and cross probably would not be concluded for at least two days. He began by reading into the record a long prepared statement and then was examined by his counsel, James S. Esby Smith. The former director, who has been ill for some months, appeared to stand the strain well until late in the day when several times his counsel cautioned him not to over-excite himself.

Forbes' testimony was heard by the largest crowd that has yet attended the hearings. Almost every available bit of space in the committee room was occupied and scores of men and women stood for hours at the many others were turned away. Chairman Reed announced that tomorrow the hearings would be held in a larger room.

Contract Awards

The awarding of contracts for hospitals at North-Ampton, Mass., Tupper Lake, New York and Amgrian lake, Washington which figured largely in Mortimer's testimony, the purchase of the Livermore, Calif., hospital site; the employment of Mathew O'Brien, a San Francisco architect, to prepare plans for the Livermore hospital, and the Perryville sale were the principal subjects touched upon today by Forbes.

The former director declared the first thing he did with respect to hospital contracts after congress made the money available was to confer with the engineering departments of the army and navy.

"I put the job entirely in their hands; the jurisdiction right up to them," he said.

The witness testified that plans and specifications for the three hospitals under discussion had been prepared by either the navy or war departments and that he had followed recommendations of those departments in awarding contracts.

Perryville Described

Employment of a local architect to assist with the Livermore plans was suggested by President Harding. Forbes testified that O'Brien was hired on the strength of endorsements which he brought to Washington, among which were those of the two senators from California and the entire delegation from that state in the house of representatives.

Describing Perryville as "the best junk pile" the government ever had, Forbes said he was for closing it, but that there was "a desire and a political one" to keep it going.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Utility Corn at the International—J. C. Hackleman, Secretary of the Illinois Crop Improvement Association, has the following to say concerning the prospects for the Utility type at the coming International Grain and Hay Show, December 1 to 8.

The Utility type of corn, as recognized in Illinois for the past three years, has annually been shown by many Illinois exhibitors at "The International," but this year promised recognition at the Show for the first time. Illinois has taken the lead in insisting that more and more attention should be given in the judging of corn to those characters which seem to be correlated with productivity. In other words, show corn, if it deserves a premium, should be superior seed corn.

At the April meeting of the representatives of the several states, called by the management of the Grain and Hay Show, to make plans for the 1923 "International," a change was made in the zoning system. A line was drawn from Chicago southward on the Illinois-Indiana line, making four sections out of what was formerly two. Thus, the western portion of Zones 3 and 4, in which Illinois falls, is now known as Zones 3 and 4 West. At this April meeting a committee was appointed from each of the several states concerned and from Canada, to agree upon types of corn which would be recognized as the accepted types and recommended as such to the Judges' Committee at "The International."

The points which should be especially emphasized in selecting a sample for "The International" are—lustre, freedom from excess starch, firm, heavy ears, and shanks which are free from discoloration. Care must be given uniformity, of course, as a poorly matched, irregular sample is never as favorably considered by a Judge as a uniform one. Samples in Zone 3 West, which is that portion of Illinois lying north of a line drawn along the north edge of Hancock, McDonough, Fulton, Tazewell, McLean, Champaign and Vermilion counties, should be at least 9 1/2 inches long, while those from Zone 4 West, which is that portion of Illinois lying south of this line should be 10 inches or more in length. The number of rows is not specified, but as a rule will run 16 to 18 rows in Northern Illinois and 16 to 20 in central and southern.

Entries close November 10th. Illinois exhibitors are urged to make application for entries in plenty of time and to have their samples in Chicago not later than Monday, November 26th. In case an exhibitor wishes to bring his exhibit in person, he can do so until Friday noon, November 30th, provided proper entries have been made in advance.

MORE RESULTS OF PUBLICITY MOVE

The Chamber of Commerce is daily receiving inquiries about Jacksonville, arising from the high publicity campaign for the city. Industries or various kinds are writing for further particulars. Other cities are becoming interested in similar movements and want to know how Jacksonville is doing it. One city in California is planning to spend $25,000 on industrial development.

INSURANCE GROUP IN ALL DAY MEET

The Spink, Strawn & Spink agency for the Columbian National Life Insurance Company of Boston, Mass., held a very interesting all day session with a number of their agents Tuesday. The meeting convened at the Insurance rooms in the Hockenhill Building at 11 a. m., and J. G. Strawn, the elder member of the firm stated that the meeting had been called largely to have a report of the Convention recently held at Boston, Mass., where Mrs. J. H. Dankin and Earl M. Spink were the representatives of the local agency.

Mrs. Lanskin gave a most interesting review of the convention describing the personality of the head officials until those hearing felt a close relationship with the company officers at Boston. She brought out many salient points of a number of different speakers who had been of the program and in passing remarked that the talk by Earl M. Spink was very forceful and well received. The entertainment accorded the Columbian National guests was unusually well arranged and from the supplying of pleasant surroundings to the theater and ball games, nothing was left undone to make the visitors not only pleased with Boston, but also with the Company the agency represented.

The meeting adjourned at noon and were served a delicious luncheon by the Spink, Strawn and Spink managers at the Peacock Inn, at which time Mr. Spink took pictures of the group. This was done that Mr. Ed Spink, who was unable to be at the meeting, might have the picture. The absence of Mr. Spink was the only disappointing feature of the day, and much regret was expressed on account of his illness. The flowers used as decorations were also sent to him, who while improving is unable to be about.

After the luncheon the meeting then again assembled at the Agency's rooms where Earl M. Spink concluded a report of the convention.

The following were present at the luncheon and meeting: Mr. and Mrs. James G. Strawn, Mrs. Eb Spink, Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Spink and daughter Ruth, Abner Hall, Helen Hart, Olive Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stevenson, Mrs. James H. Dankin, Mr. Hatfield of New Berlin and Mr. Ford Mathews of Tallula, and Mrs. W. S. Jones.

TO WIDEN PAVEMENT ON W. STATE STREET

Property Owners Agree to Three Foot Extension on North Side of Street and Removal of Trees

The widening of the West State street pavement from the alley east of the Gillham Funeral Home to Church street is now a settled fact. Property owners along the north side of the street yesterday signed an agreement to pay for the additional three feet of pavement that will bring the street on a line with the curb to the east.

The trees on the north side of the street are to be removed immediately, and the work of widening the street will begin. Those trees are already, many of them in a dying condition and their removal will not detract from the beauty of the street.

The concrete extension of the East State street pavement has been finished, and is to be closed to traffic the required 21 days. With good weather prevailing, workmen are expected to finish laying the concrete base on West Morton avenue next Friday, and then will begin laying the base on West State street.

"UP THE LADDER" AT THE GRAND

A William A. Brady Co., presented "Up the Ladder" at the Grand Opera house last night. This is a comedy by Owen Davis and was accounted one of the most successful plays produced in New York last winter.

The story deals with a typical young American couple who start wedded life in a little flat in an obscure neighborhood. All went well for a time and then the financial problems of the young husband and the social activities of the wife caused some difference in their viewpoints. The developing situation is handled mostly from a comedy viewpoint, but there are touches of the melodramatic as well.

The cast here included Gertrude Gustin, Duncan Penwarden and others of like ability, and it can be said that it was a typical Brady Co., capable in every way of an excellent presentation of a clever play.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT IS ON TRIAL

Mrs. Hattie Graham Seeks $25,000 Damage From Concord Man—Alleges Failure to Carry Out Promise of Marriage Court Orders.

James B. Cooper of Concord is the defendant in a suit which is being tried before Judge E. S. Smith in the Circuit Court in which Mrs. Hattie B. Graham of Springfield is seeking damages to the amount of $25,000. She bases her claim on the failure of Mr. Cooper to marry her after he is alleged to have courted her.

The case took up the time of the court yesterday and will probably be turned over to the jury for a verdict this morning. The divorcee, in their opening statements told of the defendant's friendly relations with Cooper and of his supposed engagement of marriage to her. Mrs. Graham as a witness in her own behalf told of receiving an engagement ring from Mr. Cooper in January of 1920 and of his failure to carry out the engagement, by marriage since that time.

Numerous letters were offered as evidence in the case, some of which were claimed by the attorneys for the complainant to have been written by Mr. Cooper to Mrs. Graham were read in court in which the author writes of the time when they will be in a little happy home. Parts of the letters alleged to have been written by the defendant were disclaimed by the Concord man as were also the signatures to some.

Attorneys for the defense produced several letters which they allege were written by the Concord man to the complainant. Some of these she said she had written and some she claimed she had no knowledge of. In one instance Mrs. Graham recognized her handwriting on the envelope but disclaimed any knowledge of the contents.

Witnesses were placed on the stand for the complainant who stated that the defendant had sought the company of Mrs. Graham and had made promises to her which he had not fulfilled. Mr. Cooper who took the witness stand in his defense denied these statements and produced witnesses in support of his denial.

The complainant is represented by Bellatti, Bellatti and Moriarty and C. A. Barnes of Springfield. The attorneys for the defense are William N. Hargrove and Walter W. Wright. The jury is composed of C. A. Gunn, John F. Maloney, L. H. Maul, Phillip Hinner, John Miner, Clay Davenport, J. Edgar Stout, Glen Sooy, Paul H. Seymour, J. Roy Lomb, R. E. Muller and Charles Cobb.

Docket Entries

In the assumpt suit of the Owen Hardware Co., vs. A. L. Fanning, et al., motion was made to dismiss for want of cost bond.

There were more than 170 delegates present at the occasion and they were arranged in line according to time of founding of the school which they represented, I. W. C., being 57th in the line.

The delegates assembled at noon and walked to the White House, where they were received by President Coolidge. This was followed by a hotel luncheon; an informal occasion during which speeches were made by friends of President Lewis, the most notable being the warm praise given by President Moore of Lake Forest College, where Mr. Lewis did his undergraduate work was later head master and where he was married.

After the luncheon the company assembled in the beautiful Pan-American building where they donned the academic caps and gowns and to which place the delegates marched in the order in which the colleges were founded.

Mrs. Stewart's husband, Dr. Charles L. Stewart, represented Illinois Wesleyan on this occasion and Illinois College was represented by Thomas J. Fankler. President Lewis was at one time a member of the faculty of Illinois college.

Mrs. Stewart said that the inauguration proper was most impressive, the body of delegates filling the entire space of the platform and half of the main floor.

LOCAL YOUTH KILLED BY ELECTRIC SHOCK

Albert Birdsell Meets Death Tuesday Morning While Working Among Wires on Telephone Pole—Funeral Thursday

Albert D. Birdsell, 19, residing at 857 North Diamond street, was instantly killed about 10:15 o'clock yesterday morning when he came in contact with a high tension light and power wire while working on a telephone pole in Broadway alley just north of West State street. Birdsell was a ground man for the Illinois Telephone Co., and was at work on a pole about 10 feet above the roof of a one story addition to the rear of a business building. There are at least a score of wires, both telephone and electric, on the pole, and it is not certain what wire the young man touched. Alfred Cowdin, who was working with Birdsell at the time, saw him fall to the roof of the small building. He called for help, and Dr. Carl E. Black was summoned from his office in the Ayers building nearby. A call was also sent to the fire department for the lungmover.

After working several minutes with Birdsell on the roof, the physician and fire chief realized that their efforts were useless. When Dr. Black arrived there was only a slight flutter of the heart remaining as a sign of life.

Albert David Birdsell was born in Morgan county Oct. 20, 1904, a son of Peter and Jennie Hoag Birdsell. His mother preceded him in death four months ago. He is survived by his father and the following brothers and sisters: Arthur H., Irene, Everett, Howard and Ray Birdsell, all residing at home.

The youth was a member of the Christian church Sunday school. The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Gillham Funeral Home, in charge of Rev. M. L. Pontius. Burial will take place in Ebenezer.

Coroner C. A. Rose was absent from the city at the time of the tragedy, and will not be able to hold an inquest until sometime today. It will probably be brought out at the inquest what wires on the pole could have caused the young man's death. Dr. Black stated yesterday that there was a burn on the thumb of the left hand, and burns on the thumb and in the palm of the right hand, which were the only outward evidences of the electric shock on the body.

PRESBYTERIANS PLAN FOR COMING MEET

Prominent Churchmen Will Attend Synod Sessions Here in June—Conference Study Groups Planned

Plans for the meeting of the Synod and Presbyterian Conference to be held in the city in June were formulated Tuesday by the Presbyterian Conference committee which met at State Street church for their first session yesterday.

A luncheon was served at noon after the business session which was in charge of Mrs. C. A. Johnson, Mrs. C. H. Russell and Mrs. Florence Wardhaugh.

It was decided to hold the conference June 16 to 19, the Synod to be in session the evening of June 16 when Moderator William F. Jones of Carlinville will give the address. In addition to this the committee expect to have Dr. James Timothy Stone of Chicago, Robert E. Spear of New York, and William Hays, also of New York, who will give an address on Ministerial Relief.

Conference study groups are being planned, and a large banquet, which will prove one of the most interesting features of the conference at which time it is expected that there will be 1000 guests, is being arranged. One subject which will call for special attention is the one centering around Christian Education. Rev. Paul Peterson of Monmouth, Ill., conferred with the local committee to arrange the details of the study conference. The delegates of the Synod will be entertained in the homes of Presbyterians and conference delegates will be quartered at the School for the Deaf.

Among those who were present at yesterday's meeting were: Rev. Henry Brown, Chicago, moderator; William F. Jones, Carlinville; Harmon Johnson, Clinton; J. N. Elliott, Decatur; W. H. Creameans, Springfield; V. B. Hindman, Aurora; W. Clyde Smith, Chicago; J. W. Farrell, Virginia; D. L. McNary, Freeport; Mrs. Stroch, Chicago; Mrs. Pinnell, Decatur; Dr. W. Taylor, Decatur.

In addition to these Rev. W. E. Spoons, Rev. W. H. Marbach, Rev. T. W. Smith and Dr. C. H. Rammekamp were also present at the meeting.

PROMINENT FARMER CALLED BY DEATH

E. G. Dewese Passed Away Tuesday Morning—Lived Northwest of City

Ernest Gibson Dewese, for many years a well known and successful farmer residing five miles northwest of this city, passed away about noon yesterday at a local hospital. Mr. Dewese was born in Missouri Feb. 20, 1863, and came to this county with his family when he was six months old. On Oct. 4, 1888, he was married to Miss Harriet Patterson, who survives him. He was for many years a faithful member of the Concord Christian church.

Besides his wife, Mr. Dewese is survived by three daughters, the Misses Pearl and Ruby Dewese at home, and Mrs. Elmer Crabtree of this city. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Mildred Powell and Miss Mary Dewese of Los Angeles; one nephew, Howard Powell of Los Angeles, and one niece, Mrs. Mary Powell Snagr, of New York City.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later, pending word from the relatives in California.

FRANK KIRK DOING GOOD COMEDY WORK

William Burge has received from Frank Kirk clippings from the London (Ont.) Advertiser, telling of the appearance of "The Bringing Up Father on Broadway" Co., there. Frank Kirk of this city is one of the company and has part of "Rastus, a wandering musician." The program also refers to this Jacksonville comedian as "more wandering than musician."

The paper referred to makes this reference to Kirk's work: "Most of us have forgotten how many times the cartoons show us a ducky, but there must have been one in the story because the ducky of Frank Kirk is too good to be left out of such a picture comedy as this. He plays everything from a home-made imitation of a steam calliope to an equally home-made set of bagpipes; he amused last night's audience, as he must have done to many large vaudeville houses in the states and provided 15 minutes of the very best of this clever kind of fun."

Mr. Kirk in his letter to Mr. Burge, expresses his regret over the death of George W. Davis, who he had known for many years.

Mrs. L. O. Berryman, who has been a patient at Passavant hospital for a number of days, has so far recovered that she was able to return to her home on the Vandallia road.

By Albert Apple

Mystery

Rafael Schermann, known to Vienna police as "the man with the X-ray eyes," visits America. He's said to have an uncanny ability to look at a bit of handwriting and be able to tell all about the writer and the circumstances under which it was written. He has helped the police solve many a baffling mystery.

In America, Schermann will demonstrate before scientists. He comes at the psychological moment. The nation is swept by a wave of intense interest in the psychic. These waves come roughly every 50 years, following big wars.

Terrible

Lord Curzon in his book goes Edgar Allan Poe one better in telling about an Amir of Afghanistan, said to have put to death by slow torture 120,000 of his own people. Another time he had 10,000 enemies blinded by quicklime, then turned loose in the wilderness. The star act was taking prisoners to a mountain top during zero weather, pouring water on them until they were encased in solid ice, up to their heads, then left to die.

While taking with a grain of salt the stories about this barbarian we can't help reflecting that maybe civilization is more of a success than we realize.

Paradise

Australian newspaper reports that Tonga, in the South Pacific, is the only country in the world without a national debt. All schools are free, and the government also pays the doctors, medical service being without charge to the people. The only taxes are low tariffs and about $8 a year paid by all males over 16. Tonga has 25,000 inhabitants, all kinds of sports, telephones and radio. Boy, bring the timetable.

Tonga people apparently aren't paying for a lot of former wars.

Trip

Animal life first appeared on earth in the Gobi desert of China, according to scientific theory. That theory has been proved by the recent excavations, claims the archaeologist, R. C. Andrews. He believes that the diggers will unearth skeletons of prehistoric men which would make the Gobi desert the most probable cradle of the human race.

For every scientist who is investigating the ultimate destination of humanity, there are hundreds trying to discover where mankind started. They can't dig up the Hereafter with a shovel, and any outsider who tries is a fraud and humbug.

Noise

Sound-proof apartment houses are close at hand. Boston is building several, walls so deadened that a piano or fiddle cannot be heard in neighbor apartments. Joseph Pulitzer had a sound-proof room in his Bar Harbor home.

In various ways man tries to escape from the prison (civilization) in which he has walled himself. Discordant noise is part of the prison, destroying nervous systems. Sound-proof home would be the next best bet to living a natural life in the open.

Schools

New York City has 955,000 pupils in its schools, and 277,000 of them are on part time or double shifts because of the shortage of school buildings and seats.

It's a rare city that doesn't have a similar situation. One reason is that cities try to build monumental school buildings when wooden structures, such as were used in army training camps, would serve just as well—temporarily, at least—until our civilization figured out how to get as many seats in school houses as it provides for movie audiences without difficulty.

"Don't answer" reports would be greatly reduced if subscribers would be prompt in answering when their bells ring.

Substantial Luncheon Dishes
Now that canned vegetables must take the place of fresh ones "made" dishes of vegetables come into their own. These dishes are specially nice for luncheon as they are usually almost a meal in themselves.

Spanish Rice
Spanish rice is a hearty dish that might well form the principal food for a substantial noon-day meal. This with brown or whole wheat bread and butter, celery and a simple fruit desert forms a well balanced meal that requires little time to prepare.

Spanish Rice
Two tablespoons bacon fat, 1 large onion, 2 cups canned tomatoes, 1 cup rice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper. Wash rice thoroughly through several waters, rubbing it between the hands. Drain. Melt bacon fat in frying pan. Add onion, peeled and cut in thin slices. Cook until onion is a pale straw color. Add tomatoes and sprinkle over rice. Season with salt and pepper. Cover and cook slowly for an hour. If the rice becomes too dry before tender add a little boiling water. Stir to prevent sticking. Serve very hot. A Spanish onion is preferred, but two small, plain, ordinary onions can be used.

Mock Sausages.
One-half cup dried lima beans, 1 cup fine dried bread crumbs, 1 cup chopped peanuts, 3 tablespoons butter, 1 egg, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper.

Canned lima beans can be used in this recipe.

If dried ones are used, soak beans in cold water for three hours. Parboil in soda water for 10 minutes. Drain and rinse in clear cold water. Boil in salted water until tender. Drain and use as canned limas. Rub beans through a strainer. Add bread crumbs, nuts, egg slightly beaten, butter, salt and pepper to bean pulp. Mix well and shape in the form of small sausages. Roll in bread crumbs and fry in a frying pan.

When canned vegetables such as beans, peas or asparagus are used they should be opened and rinsed in clear cold water.

Pea Souffle
Three tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 1 cup peas rubbed through strainer, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 tablespoon minced parsley.

Make a white sauce of butter, flour, milk and salt. Measure pulp of peas after rubbing through strainer. Add to white sauce. Beat whites and yolks of eggs separately. Add yolks beaten until thick and lemon colored to mixture. Add pepper and fold in whites beaten stiff and dry. Turn into a well buttered baking dish and bake in a moderate oven until firm to the touch. It will take from 30 to 40 minutes.

Asparagus in ramikins is used for dinner when the meat is light or as the main dish for luncheon.

Asparagus in Ramikins
One cup canned asparagus, 2 hard boiled eggs, 1/2 cups white sauce, 4 tablespoons grated cheese, 4 tablespoons melted bread crumbs, salt and pepper.

Cut asparagus into 1-inch lengths. Put a layer of asparagus in each ramikin, add slices of hard-boiled egg and pour over white sauce to cover. Season with salt and pepper. Sprinkle with bread crumbs and cheese and bake 20 minutes in a hot oven. (Copyright, 1923, NEA Service Inc.)

BIG TEN COACHES POINTING TOWARD REMAINING GAMES

Wisconsin Meets Michigan in Most Important Contest

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Western Conference coaches today had their teams pointed toward the remaining games the outcome of which will determine the Big Ten championship.

At Madison, Wisconsin turned its attention to Michigan whose conference hopes rest on a defeat of the Badgers there Saturday. Although over come by Illinois last week, Wisconsin learned much football which it will use against the Wolverines.

Coach Yost has a battered squad of veterans, the games with the Marines, Uteritz has a broken leg and other members of the squad are bruised.

Mississippi Aggies Saturday. Iowa and Minnesota are to give one of Saturday's feature exhibitions. Both teams had a week's rest and reported prepared for a fierce battle. The Gophers are undefeated. Coach Jones at Iowa has Parkin and Hancock back in his line-up and will present his strongest front. Minnesota with Martineau and Cross again playing will present its best eleven.

Chicago came out of its games with Indiana intact and is getting ready for the contest against Ohio State.

DREAM ON, CHARLEY

The world has been full of surprises for Charley White. Once he has all but matched with Benny Leonard for a title bout, took on Johnny Dundee as a work out, lost the decision, also the championship bout. Now after working back to the position of contender, Pal Moran comes along and knocks him out Dream on, Charley.

Three veteran players on the Chicago White Sox were in line for the managerial berth made vacant by the passing of Kid Gleason. Eddie Collins, Ray Schalk and Harry Hooper are the players in question. All have ability. In order to do away with any bad feeling, Comiskey probably thought it best to appoint an outsider, rather than select one of the trio.

'Fastest Player I Ever Coached,' Zuppke's Opinion of "Red" Grange Illini Grid Star

'RED' GRANGE IS A MASTER AT SHOOTING
PASSES

ONE OF THE HARDEST
MEN TO TACKLE
IN FOOTBALL

'FASTEST MAN I EVER
COACHED' SAYS ZUPPKE

BY BILLY EVANS

In Harold "Red" Grange, Illinois has one of the greatest halfbacks the west has boasted in years.

If he continues at his present clip through the season there will be no keeping him off the All-Western eleven. Incidentally, "Red" is entitled to much consideration, as an All-America possibility.

The day prior to the game between Illinois and Chicago, in a chat with Coach Bob Zuppke of Illinois I brought up the name of Grange. There was a twinkle in Zuppke's eyes at the very mention of it.

"He's the fastest halfback I have ever coached. He's a wonder in his sophomore year and is going to get better each season. He has the ideal football temperament, likes the game, and hero worship will never change the size of his hat. He is going to help make Illinois football history or I am no judge of football players." Quite a compliment coming from so famous a coach as Zuppke, who is not inclined to enthuse, usually over-conservative about handing out praise.

On the following day it was easy for me to see why Zuppke enthused over Grange. The Illinois sophomore is one of the fastest men of the year. He runs without the slightest effort. He's big and husky as halfbacks go, a wonder at picking passes out of the air, at his best in an open field and exceedingly hard to tackle. In one of his rushes against Chicago, five wearers of the C got hold of him only to be thrust aside.

Grange has starred in every game in which Illinois has played this season. He leads the Western Conference in point scoring.

In the opening game of the season against Nebraska, Grange scored three touchdowns.

Leads in Point Scoring

In the game with Butler, Illinois was trailing until Grange got into action. In quick time he put over two touchdowns and put Coach Zuppke at ease.

In the 9 to 6 victory scored over Iowa it was Grange who put over the touchdown that gave the Big Ten champions their first setback of the year. He made this score by taking three passes from Britton, averaging better than a 20-yard gain on each pass.

Against Northwestern he scored three times, once running 90 yards after intercepting a forward pass. In the game with Chicago he scored the only touchdown of the game, giving Illinois the victory. In that game Grange performed the remarkable feat of carrying the ball 17 times for a gain of 173 yards, averaging slightly better than 10 yards for each attempt.

No one player has helped more to put Illinois back in the "Big Ten" running than "Red" Grange. Keep your eye on the "Red."

CROQUET EXPERTS PLAYED GAMES

In a croquet game in which Harry Way of Ashland and I. M. Bunce played on the home court Sunday afternoon each played two balls. First shot and choice of balls was won by Bunce in "lagging" and he chose red and blue. Way taking white and black.

Bunce shot red to his partner, blue. Way shot a red and blue instead of going to his partner ball and missed. Bunce shooting blue, hit red, rocketing it across field to near the first two arches, then hitting the "danger" ball (the ball shooting next) which he wired and then hit the "innocent" ball. He then requested both to the other end of the field behind the first wicket. He grouped all three balls behind the wicket, and left his partner ball red, a set-up.

Way missed his next shot. Bunce shooting red, carried all the balls along and made a run of 13 points, missing the second arch from home stake. The balls were left wired and Way missed again. Bunce, shooting the blue ball, counted on a ball and starting from home circled the field, picked up the partner ball red, and carrying it thru the last two wickets followed along with blue, and staked out both balls making a score of 30 to 0 and allowed his opponent only three shots.

At Way of Ashland and Earl Abernathy of Concord arrived at the scene of battle near it's close after when Abernathy and Bunce played Al Way and Harry Way of Ashland; Abernathy and Bunce winning by a fair margin.

This is Ashland's first defeat on the home court this season.

ZUPPKE WORKING HARD FOR OHIO STATE GAME

URBANA, Ill., Nov. 12.—With two weeks before Illinois' next conference engagement, Coach Bob Zuppke began pointing his team for the game with Ohio State November 24, victory in which means a conference championship for Illinois.

Mississippi A. and M. comes to the stadium here Saturday and is rated a worthy opponent, but Zuppke is giving most of his attention to beating Ohio State, which Illinois scouts report much stronger than do newspaper accounts of the buckeye's previous games this season.

Both "Red" Grange and H. Hall for the regular quarterback, who were injured and taken out of the Wisconsin game, were out for practice tonight and will be fit to start against Mississippi.

Coach Zuppke spent a good deal of time today trying out substitutes for Grange. He will try to develop Johnny Mauer or Charles Jenks, both speedy backs, with the idea of alternating their end runs with line plunging by McIlwain. Both men were used in the scheduled half of the Wisconsin game, but were unable to follow the Illinois interference satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Campbell of Waverly and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Campbell and son Russell of Virden motored to Jacksonville Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Golden on South Main street.

EVERETT TRUE—By Condo

"ZUP" WILL TAKE NO CHANCES SATURDAY

URBANA, Ill., Nov. 13.—Coach Bob Zuppke of Illinois hankers to see Ohio, final Big Ten opponents of the Illini, in action against Chicago Saturday on Stag field. But he has put the temptation behind him and will stay home to tend to his own knittin'.

The reason is Mississippi A. and M., which invades the Illinois stadium Saturday for the last home game. "Zup" figures that the Illini should repulse the southerners but he does not want to take a chance. The fact that Mississippi was able to hold the strong Vanderbilt eleven scoreless two weeks ago is impressive. The lads from Dixie are a heavy bunch.

Ernest Bear, assistant coach, who took a long journey to Starkville, Miss., last Saturday to inspect them as they defeated Union college.

The Illinois coach would dearly live to see Ohio play two years ago when the Illini met DePaw, on Illinois field, he went to Chicago to see the Buckeyes and on what he saw was able to plan the attack and defense which furnished the greatest upset of the season a week later when Illinois handed the Wilcemen their first Big Ten licking. But he feels that it would be taking up a little chance to leave the Illini this week. Wherefore, the fans are beginning to think that there may be an interesting game to wind up the season, even if they do count on an Orange and Blue victory.

An Illinois boy is coming with the southerners to try to beat the university of his old state. He is K. P. Gatchell, center, who formerly lived in Clinton, Ill., and was known to fame especially as a basketball player. Gatchell went south when his father went down there to run a plantation. He has been selected as an all-southern basketball guard and is said to be a good gridiron man. He weighs 198 pounds and thus has an advantage in weight over Vivian Green, who weighs about 190.

The Mississippi backfield came in for high praise in all southern newspapers for its performance against Vanderbilt. Capt. E. B. Barnett, fullback, is an 188-pounder, Perkins, left halfback, weighs 175, and Stephens, right half, 163. Their running attack, directed by Young, quarterback, was excellent.

Mississippi will be keyed up for the combat. It would make the southerners nationally famous to ambush the Illini. But Zuppke will start his strongest lineup. For "Zup" wants to keep his machine well oiled that there may be no slip-up at Columbus.

The game is a "bargain" as the admission is $1.50. There are no reserved seats.

IOWA SHOWING POWERFUL DEFENSE

IOWA CITY, Ia., Nov. 13.—The Iowa University football team, in practice this afternoon demonstrated a powerful offense and in scrimmage against a picked second team including varsity substitutes and the best freshmen players, the regulars tore terrible gaps in the opposing line and the varsity backs galloped down the field for long gains.

With but three more practices ahead before departing for Minneapolis Friday night, Coach Howard Jones drove his team hard tonight. The Hawkeyes have five consecutive victories over the Gophers and after a week of rest will present full war strength at Minneapolis Saturday.

Scott McIntyre, substitute guard of last year, played in the first scrimmage and will probably start against the Gopher eleven, in place of Olson, who has been relegated to the seconds.

Fry played at quarterback tonight and Captain Miller at fullback. Otto was not out for practice and Barrett, baseball captain last spring was at Otto's place at end.

NEW YORK CORNERING STAR GOLF PLAYERS

New York is cornering the stars of professional golf.

Gene Sarazen, Walter Hagen, Jim Barnes, Bobby Cruickshank and Johnny Farrell have been playing as metropolitans for some time now.

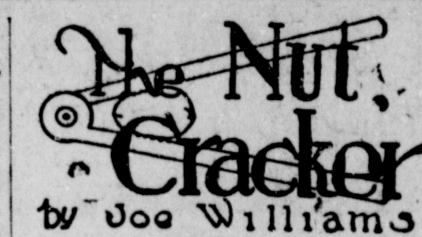

This contingent is to be augmented by two more noted professionals, namely, Jack Hutchinson of Chicago, and Leo Diegel of Washington, D. C.

Hutchinson has signed with a Long Island club and Diegel plans to sign with a New York club.

These players give the metropolitan district a formidable lineup. Sarazen, Hagen, Barnes and Hutchinson have all held national championships. Cruickshank came within a stroke of winning the open last summer. Diegel tied for second in the open in 1920.

W. L. Lovitt and C. W. Thatcher of Chicago transacted business in this city recently.

Louis Massie made a business trip to the city from Franklin Tuesday.

Expert says it takes nerve to be a golf player. Even takes nerve to dress like one.

Football writers picking greatest back of the year can hardly ignore Pola Negri's.

There must still be a demand for the broad, uproarious type of comedy, or else Tex Rickard wouldn't have rematched Greb and Wilson.

Chicago coach says he's against paid footballers. But apparently he has no objection to paid coaches.

Cleveland quarterback, who played through game with mind a blank may have been impersonating a congressman.

Fistic world would doubtless take Jack Renault more seriously if his record didn't include a victory over Fred Fulton.

Zev was all right until something dubbed him a master horse. This is no year for master horses or master minds.

That low, cultural noise you hear coming in off the water may be the humiliated Papyrus indulging in a quiet, restrained horse laugh.

Harvard finally wins a football game, thereby proving anything can happen under the new rules.

Referee calls race between fishing boats no contest. On the ground, possibly, that they were pulling their punches.

Despite the fact that Valentino has taken up tennis, the sport promises to be as popular as ever.

Good-Will

SHAKESPEARE appraised good-will at its true value when he said:

"Who steals my purse steals trash;
'tis something, nothing;
'Twas mine, 'tis his, and has been slave to thousands;
But he that filches from me my good name
Robs me of that which not enriches him
And makes me poor indeed."

It is good-will that has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) great.

Good-will is prized more highly by the Management of this Company than any other factor or element in the business.

Good-will is born of confidence.

Confidence is the inevitable result of ability to serve—proved over long periods of time.

In short, good-will is the child of Service.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) long ago became convinced that when service is rendered to the public, profits follow—as surely as night follows day.

The more whole-souled, the more energetic, the more enthusiastic the service, the greater the profits.

Service is interpreted in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to mean something more than the perfunctory delivery of petroleum products.

It means going to any lengths to get Standard Oil products to the consumer, wherever he may be, in such quantities as may be desired—whether in thousand gallon lots or five gallon lots.

It means the highest standard of quality in manufacture and the maintenance of this standard at all times.

It means exerting every atom of facilities at the Company's command, to discover and develop new products from crude petroleum that will add to the comforts and refinements of life.

It is this enthusiastic spirit of intensive service—plus the every day practice of the principles of equity, fairness and justice—manifest at every point of contact between the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and the public—that has gained for this Company the good-will, respect and esteem of the thirty million people of the Middle West.

Market Report

RAILROAD SHARES
MAKE SLIGHT GAINSNEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Speculators for the advance succeeded in bidding up the railroad shares in today's stock market but were unable to completely check the liquidation of industrials, which continued to yield on profit taking and a renewal of bear selling in some speculative favorites. Recessions in such pivotal industrial shares at United States Steel, Baldwin, Studebaker and American can were held to half point each, but they ran as high as 3 points in some of the automotive and chemical shares, which bore the brunt of the selling pressure.New Haven was selected as the leader of the railroad group today, occupying the position held by the Erie issues yesterday and Southern railway on Saturday.New Haven was pushed up 1 point to 141, closing slightly below that figure.Gains of a point or more were recorded by New York Central,
Erie common and first preferred,
St. Paul common and preferred,
Northern Pacific, Rock Island six per cent preferred, Texas and Pacific, "Nickel Plate" and New Orleans, Texas and Mexico.Further downward readjustments of crude oil prices and rumors of additional gasoline price cuts had a somewhat unsettling effect in oil shares. Tidewater oil breaking nearly 5 points and losses of a point or more being recorded by Pan-American A and B and Marland, with fractional recessions elsewhere.There were several strong spots among the specialties, notably International Telephone,
Jones Brothers Tea, Jewell Tea preferred and Twin City Rapid Transit, up 3 to 5 points.Copper shares showed a tendency to strengthen on reports of a rising trend in the price of the Red Metal. An advance in lead prices also helped those shares.Announcement at Washington that the next interest and principal payment on the British war debt would be paid entirely in liberty bonds, stimulated trading in United States government issues at firm prices.

Total bond sales $10,824,000.

DELINQUENCIES HAVE GREATLY INCREASED

Opportunity Home for Boys Started Two Years Ago in Decatur by Community Interests Makes Wonderful Showing

DECATUR, Ill. (A. P.)—A decrease of 90 per cent in the number of juvenile delinquencies has been accomplished in Decatur in the last five years thru the intelligent and sympathetic effort of the community, according to the co-operative work of churches, schools, charitable organizations and Boy Scouts.

Cases of petty thefts, window breaking, truancy and other juvenile crimes have become so scarce that the judge has received only three such cases since Spring. In each of these the defendant was a first offender and legal action was unnecessary.

The community program responsible for this improvement is designed to cover all cases. The good boy is encouraged, the poor boy assisted and the bad boy given an opportunity to reform.

One of the most interesting tools of the community to this work is the "Opportunity Home for Boys."

The home was started two years ago when the Decatur Council of Women representing every woman's organization in the city, gave a benefit supper for children's welfare work, by which they cleared more than two thousand dollars. With this money they made a payment on an eight room home near the edge of town and signed a mortgage for $7,500. The home was so successful that a local bank assumed the mortgage. Gifts of clothing from individuals and of food from stores and from farmers go a long way towards making ends meet.

The men's clubs of the city have taken a lively interest in the project and the home has been improved by the addition of one room and a sleeping porch provided by the Lions club. On the record of the institution, Judge McCoy recently went before the county board of supervisors and requested $2,500 for the work, which was given without dissent.

A married couple, hired to take care of the home, have proved very successful in the sympathetic handling of children. The boys are sent to public schools and no attempt is made to control them by force. They have a large playground and are allowed to work in the gardens at the home but no effort is made to give vocational training. Records show that the home is successful in a majority of the delinquency cases which come to it and the boys are usually released at the end of six months.

Many of the boys are admitted because their parents are unable to support them properly in school. With their clothing and food and lodging furnished, they can get the most out of their education. Others are sent to the home because their parents are ignorant, or otherwise unfit to rear them. Judge McCoy sends the home many boys who have come before him in the county court. If, after sympathetic study of their case, he believes there is a chance to save them he lists them as delinquents and turns them over to the home. Several boys have been taken to the home at the request of their parents who pay their expenses in order to put them under the good influences which surround the institution.

Judge McCoy believes that the home is worth many times what it has cost the community in the saving to the community in expenses for court actions, destruction of property thru petty crimes and in the clean boyhood which it produces.

In addition to this project the community is maintaining a welfare home for girls under a similar plan, and a day nursery where working mothers can leave their children while they are at work.

Charles Mullens and family have moved to this city, from Litterberry neighborhood.

MANY CITIES IN U. S. CARRY SAME NAMES

Postoffice Authorities Say Look at It Twice Before You Mail It—A Great Number Used More Than Twenty Times Each

DECATUR, Ill.—Five towns in United States bear the name of "Harding," according to the latest service bulletin of the Decatur Postoffice, a publication inaugurated by Postmaster Jacob Hill, formerly clerk of the Illinois senate, who is urging patrons of the postoffice in preparing mail, to "Look at it twice before you mail it."

"Recognition of duplication and similarity of town names," Postmaster Hill writes, "is a warning to both postal employees and patrons of the service; warning to employees to be careful in reading addresses and to patrons to be careful in addressing."

"Forty-three names," Mr. Hill points out, "are used more than 20 times each to designate hamlets, towns, and cities which are large enough to have post offices. They are: Franklin, 31; Clinton, 30; Chester, 20; Arlington, 29;

Washington, 28; Troy, 27; Madison, 27; Marion, 27; Manchester, 27; Clayton, 27; Glenwood, 26; Kingston, 26; Newport, 26; Ashland, 25; Centerville, 25; Cleveland, 25; Auburn, 24; Dover, 24; Hillsboro, 24; Lincoln, 24; Monroe, 24; Oxford, 24; Princeton, 24; Springfield, 24; Warren, 24; Union, 24; Greenville, 23; Wilson, 23; Belmont, 22; Canton, 22; Dayton, 22; Eugene, 22; Liberty, 22; Milford, 22; Plymouth, 22; Burlington, 21; Lebanon, 21; Portland, 20; Lexington, 20; Jamestown, 20; Hudson, 20; Danville, 20.

"Most frequent sources of duplication are the names of Presidents of the United States. Towns named for George Washington are most numerous, 28 cities thus honoring him. There are 27 Madisons, 25 Clevelands, 24 Lincolns, 24 Monroes, 23 Wilsons, 13 Roosevelts, 15 Adams, 12 Tafts and 5 Hardings. The colonists often used the names of their home villages in England when they built new towns in New England. Their pioneer sons and daughters carried these names out through the West and thus we find many Plymouths, Manchesters, Dovers and Oxfords. There are within the confines of United States 13 towns bearing the name of Paris, 18 Genevas, 17 Berlins, 12 Moscovs, 11 Viennas, 6 Pekings, and 2 Brussels. Not only do we find the world's capitals in America, but also the world's measure of perfection in the concrete form of two Utopias, 22 Eureka, 18 Arcadias, 15 Hopes and 14 Eldorados."

BOOKS GIRLS READ

What books to give the girl between 12 and 16 years of age is a very perplexing problem. The boy has been quite well cared for and his demands can be satisfied much more easily. The average girl reads fairy tales longer than the boy and is more responsive to the finer, more delicate workmanship; and too, her interests are not usually so numerous. She does, however, need some of the boy's type of books—home stories and books which are true to life.

These "true to life" books should depict lives which would be inspiring and ennobling. The great novel which presents life broadly and in the right perspective, can not be harmful. It is the small novel that presents a phase of life from a distorted low-point that is dangerous. Let the grown people brood over the stern realism of sordid surroundings, abnormal problems, hopeless effects of heredity and environment on character and what not; the healthy girl rejects all this in favor of the story in which industry is rewarded and love comes into its own.

There are many books which your girl may read and enjoy tremendously, and again, at the same time, qualities which will make her a better citizen of a broader world.

Some books worth suggesting are Blackmore's "Lorna Doone," Pyle's "Men of Iron," "The Brushwood Boy," by Kipling and always you have "Little Women" and "Held" to count on.
